Fire Saturday Night.

The barn of Wm. Glass on north Zanesville road, burned Saturday night. The cause of the conflagration was a lantern exploding. Mr. Glass was putting away his team, with the light hanging in the barn, when suddenly it exploded, scattering oil and fire into the hay. In a moment the barn was all ablaze. He got out his live stock and lost nothing but some harness, the hay, corn and straw. The loss will amount to $200. The Logan fire department responded and did good work.

Memorial.

When the shades of night were disappearing and streaks of the morning light had begun to lighten the surrounding country for another day, the Death Angel passed over and chose as his reward an infant of Mr. and Mrs. Eber Wolfe. Charles Clifton Wolfe was born Nov. 6, 1907, and departed this life Nov. 3, 1909, aged 1 year, 11 months and 27 days.

This is a bright, glad and beautiful world, fragrant with the odor of flowers, tuneful with the songs of the birds, resplendent with the glories of earth, sea and sky, and yet its attractions now are unnoticed by us, for grim, merciless death has appeared in our midst and snatched from our companionship one of our loved ones.

Our sky is hung with black and somber cloud curtains. Our vision is overcast with cadence of despair. Without the presence of that one, who has gone before, the world, indeed, seems empty and cheerless to us, and in our heart there is a dreary, dismal, aching void. The only consolation that is vouchsafed us is the sweet realization of the fact that our loved is at peace. The one upon whom we have lavished our affection is now in that land "Where the weary is at rest." Bending over the open casket, looking at the folded hands, which will never clasp ours again in this world, gazing upon the closed eyes in which we will never more see our image reflected on this earth, our scalding tears fall as we realize that our earthly companionship with this little one is forever at end, and as stated before our only consolation is that our heart's idol has heard the words from the Father's lips "Suffer the little children to come unto me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Our consolidation is found in a consideration of the fact that our treasure is in Heaven. It seems impossible that our darling which we would like to have kept in our home is gone, but one clasp of the icy hand and one touch of the marble brow reveals to us that he had passed to the unknown. The Lord said "Come" and without a moments delay, Charles passed beyond the river to the other shore, where he will live with Him "Who doeth all things right."

We had a little pleasure once, He was our joy and pride. We loved him, ah perhaps too much, For soon he slept and died. All is dark within our dwelling, Lonely are our hearts today, For the one we loved so dearly, Has forever passed away. Another little lamb has gone, To dwell with Him Who gave, And our little darling babe is sheltered in the grave. God needed one more Angel child, Midst His shining band, And so He sent us a loving smile, And clasped our darling's hand.

Funeral services occurred Thursday. Laid to rest in the Oak Grove cemetery to await the Resurrection Morn.

Obituary

Violet, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shultz, was born April 4th, 1900, departed this life October 30th, 1909, aged 9 years, 6 months and 26 days. Though her sweet life was short it brought happiness and sunshine to her home and to all who knew her. Dear little Violet was a bright child, had a sweet loving disposition. Singing was her favorite pastime. One of her favorite hymns being, "My Heavenly Home". That little life will be missed not only in her own home but the church, the school and in the homes of relatives and friends.

She leaves to mourn their loss a loving father and mother and many relatives and friends. Little Violet has gone home to heaven and there rests safe in the arms of Jesus.

Little Violet how we loved her, She was all this world to us, But the angels smiled down on her, And God took her home to rest.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the sickness and death of our darling.

An urgent invitation to attend the sessions is extended to mayor-elect and city, village and township assessors just elected.

A feature of the meeting will be the annual dinner which will be served at the Southern, Thursday evening, November 11, at 7:30 o'clock. Sharers in Whittia Reward.

From over the Pennsylvania hills comes the last echo of the Whittia kidnapping case. It is a sound sweet to Cleveland ears, for Cleveland people profit to the extent of $13,900.

Gov. E. S. Stuart, of Pennsylvania, last night ordered distribution of the $15,000 reward offered by the state of Pennsylvania for information which might lead to the arrest and conviction of the man and woman who stole the child of the Sharron attorney, and the bulk of the money comes to Cleveland.

For Patrick O'Reilly, saloon-keeper, 2158 Ontario St., there is $5,000, and for the Cleveland Police Pension fund there $8,950. There's a windfall, too, for "Prince" Hunley, "Prince," born William H. Hunley, is the negro who officiates at banquets and other state affairs in the Hollenden hotel. He receives $2,000.

The Rabbit Law.

Fish and Game Warden John C. Speaks, of Columbus, has received many inquiries from different sections of the State, within the past two weeks, asking whether it is a violation of the law to ship rabbits into or out of the State.

The regular season for shooting rabbits opens on November 15th, and closes December 4th, at which time rabbits can be shipped anywhere, but at no time out of season can rabbits be shipped unless killed in a lawful manner by farmers or land owners who are suffering damage to crops or fruits, through the ravages of the rabbit.

Complaint has come from Cincinnati within the past week that many rabbits have been shipped into that city.
